

● Mission of Accounting program

Preparing graduates able to compete locally in the field of accounting enabling them to face challenges in the marketplace through advanced teaching & learning strategy. Providing all guidance and fields to advance scientific research, carry out scientific and applied studies, and distinguished community participation.

● Program Objectives

- 1- Applying an integrated scientific approach to dealing with and solving problems
- 2- Acquiring the skills to deal with modern technological techniques
- 3- Acquisition of scientific research skills in the accounting field to link the department to the needs of society
- 4- The ability to communicate and work in a team spirit
- 5- Enhancing his ability to develop his skills as needed by the labor market in accordance with ethical and professional standards
- 6- Providing a distinguished study program that matches the labor market
- 7- Providing modern educational means to help develop his knowledge
- 8- Providing distinguished teaching staff

● General specifications for Accounting program graduate

1. Effective time management
2. Providing educational means that develop students' abilities to know and retain information
3. Providing distinguished teaching staff
4. Study the needs of the labor market and include them in academic programs
5. Providing accounting programs that are distinguished compared to other universities
6. Use of computers and information technology
7. Preparing project feasibility studies and evaluating investment proposals
8. Commitment, taking responsibility, and completing the work assigned to him in accordance with legal rules and ethical and professional standards
9. Continuing education to develop professional knowledge and skills related to the field of specialization
10. Interacting with global developments and changes and anticipating the nature and impact of those developments and changes on his field of specialization.
11. Effective communication and communication with others
12. Utilizing the knowledge and skills acquired in the field of specialization to serve the community and the surrounding environment positively
14. Using the scientific method in thinking and solving problems

Mission and management of the program (Accounting program)

Coordinator:

Dr. Mohamed Abd Elrahman

Team members:

Mrs. Hagar Ashraf

Mr. Moataz Ahmed

2025