

Teacher Training Day at the Faculty of Education, English Department, o6u

On March 31st, the English Department hosted one day teacher training on the good hands of Dr Ahmad Awad, AUC. The Teacher training covered basic requirements for teacher training in alignment with Egypt's Vision on integrated education 2030. Topics covered comprised: new teacher qualifications as per International School requirements as well as the key role of language proficiency, curriculum design and assessment. English Department Staff and Junior staff members were joined by Faculty of Languages and Translation Junior Staff Members as well as distinguished students from the Faculty of Education.

The Training was co-arranged by Community Service Chapter, the Bureau of International Relations and The Office of Student Activities, Faculty of Education, O6U.

المرفقات

